At our last Conference I was appointed agent to call the attention of our people to the importance of securing homes for our superannuated preachers. I have brought the matter before the Church through the Advocate, and by calling the attention of our district conferences to the importance of providing homes for such of our superannuated preachers as have no home. I have not been able to awaken any special interest in this matter. Some of our preachers have opposed the movement, as undesirable. It may be that the best way to provide for these brethren is through the endowment plan provided by the General Conference.

I was not asked to raise funds for this purpose, but to do what I could to awaken an interest in the matter.

Respectfully submitted, L. L. NASH.

APPENDIX

MEMOIR OF REV. JAMES EMORY BRISTOWE.

To Jesse and Jane Bristowe, in Northampton County, N. C., October 8, 1846, was born James Emory Bristowe, who died in Washington, N. C., January 20, 1911, aged sixty-four years, three months and twelve days.

His boyhood was spent on the farm and in the country school, where he became well used to hard, honest work.

When quite young he was soundly converted and promptly joined the M. E. Church, South. Soon God called him to preach, and he heartily responded; and, having served usefully in the local ranks several years, he enthusiastically enlisted in the itinerancy, being admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference of 1878, in Charlotte, N. C., Bishop George F. Pierce presiding.

His death, after nearly thirty-three years, caused the first vacancy in his Conference class, the other members of which are J. N. Cole, D. L. Earnhardt and L. E. Thompson.

Our good brother possessed to a remarkable and interesting degree the model itinerant's genuine spirit, going cheerfully and courageously to his field of labor, in most instances a humble circuit, the tall steeple never coming his way. In all the work of the Church he was constantly conscientious, duly diligent, ever efficient, fully faithful.

Beginning as a supply in 1876, he perseveringly preached the Word more than a quarter of a century—preached in season and out of season, until he could not because of increasing physical disability. He was so persistent in his consecrated determination to prosecute his "loved employ" that he accepted his last charge, North and South Henderson, did his utmost to serve it, but early in the year came sadly to realize the insufficiency of his strength.

Let us follow him through a direct succession of difficult pastorates, and then contemplate some things he accomplished by God's triumphant grace.

In the Virginia Conference, Dare Circuit, supply, 1876.

In the North Carolina Conference, Kennekeet Circuit, supply, 1877; Neuse Circuit, 1878; Carteret Circuit, 1879, 1880, 1881; Mount Olive Circuit, 1882 and 1883; Williamston Circuit, 1884; Halifax Circuit, 1885; Hickory Station, 1886, 1887, 1888; Sampson Circuit, 1889 and 1890; Hillsboro Circuit, 1891; Aurora Circuit, 1892 and 1893; LaGrange Circuit, 1894; St. John Station, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898; Bethel Station, 1899 and 1900; Straits Circuit, 1901; Pantego Circuit, 1902; Henderson, 1903, in part.

Charges served, sixteen—thirteen circuits and three stations; meetings held, 109; accessions, 771; sermons preached, 3,285; adults baptized, 353; infants, 188; average salary promised, $500; average salary paid, $413.

From this glorious record we readily discern consecration and self-sacrifice and industry and chivalry and heroism and achievement and success. Evidently God's blessing was continually and abundantly upon His loyal servant's ministry, and it was fraught with fruitfulness.

Brother Bristowe's first marriage was to Miss Emma Brown, of his own immediately native community, January 10, 1867; and to them God gave four children, three of whom died in infancy.

His devoted wife having helpfully shared his itinerant experiences twenty-three years, entered the rest eternal January 17, 1900.

He was happily fortunate in his second marriage, to Miss Sadie Owen, of Wayne County; and she, a young son, and a daughter, Mrs. Lona B. Hudnell, all of Washington, N. C., survive him. Brother Bristowe was "good at home," and his attachment to his family was singularly beautiful, while his provision for them was decidedly commendable.

During the eight years of his superannuation, while he could not preach from the pulpit, his consistent Christian life was influential and attractive, always inspiring confidence and reverence.

Who can conceive the glory and magnitude of the worthy circuit rider's reward? Full of faith and honor and labor and fidelity, he meets the Master and hears Him approvingly say, "Well done!"

"Worn-out preacher," do we put it? Yes; with weakened heart, tired brain and scarred body—all this to make ready for unending ministries in the realms of light and glory.

One week of painless confinement to his earthly bed, and our beloved Brother Bristowe has gone to his appointment in the heavenly conference, where there is no time limit, no hard place, no superannuation—

"Where congregations ne'er break up
And Sabbaths have no end."

Having served a pastorate of two years at Bethel, he became greatly attached to the locality and the people, and chose to be buried there.

That Saturday afternoon many of his former flock, with feelings of sincere sorrow and grateful recollection, gathered about his bier and then tenderly committed his lifeless body to the ground.

"Rejoice for a brother deceased;
Our loss is his infinite gain."

MEMOIR OF REV. MILES M. McFARLAND.

On Sunday morning, April 16, 1911, this faithful servant of the Lord was suddenly stricken while ministering at his altar, and literally "ceased at once to work and live." Whilst delivering an Easter message to his little flock in the church at Mebane, N. C., he heard "the one clear call"; the vision of the risen Christ broke upon him, and he fell at His feet as one dead, and the pulpit he loved so well, and where he had ministered so long and so tenderly, became the chariot which bore him home. The Lord graciously gave him his heart's desire. He was the King's messenger; he wanted to die with the King's message on his lips. The triumphant hour came when on that glorious Easter morning he assembled with his little flock in thought and spirit, and adoring wonder at the open grave in Joseph's garden, flooded with a light "that ne'er was on land or sea," the fragrance of the Easter lilies filling the heavens, the whole earth aflame with resurrection glory, and tremulous with resurrection power, he announced his text, "If a man die, shall he live again?" And with that open grave before him as the final answer to the question as old as death, and in the presence of which the philosophies of the world are dumb, he arose and passed through it as through doors swinging wide, to find his risen Lord waiting for him on the other side with the blessed welcome: "I am the resurrection and the life; he that believeth in Me shall never die. Come, thou blessed of My Father, enter into the kingdom prepared for thee before the foundation of the world."

Brother McFarland was born in Rutherford County, North Carolina, November 30, 1855. His parents, William and Annie McFarland, were strict Presbyterians, and were very careful to teach him to keep the Sabbath, read the Bible, and attend divine service. He often spoke of his mother's faith in God, and devotion to his church as an inspiration to his life. But though raised a Presbyterian he became so impressed with the doctrines and polity of the Methodist Church that he joined the same on the Double Shoals Circuit when quite a young man. In his early manhood he heard the unmistakable call of God to the Christian ministry, and he was "not disobedient to the heavenly vision." He was licensed to preach on the Double Shoals Circuit, February 3, 1883, and joined the North Carolina Conference at Wilmington in 1884. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Granbery in 1886, and ordained elder by Bishop Hargrove in 1889. He served the following charges: 1885, Magnolia Circuit; 1886, Southport Station; 1887, Pleasant Garden Circuit; 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891, St. John Church, Goldsboro; 1892, 1893, 1894 and 1895, Goldsboro Circuit; 1896, Clayton Circuit; 1897, Mount Olive Circuit; 1898, Goldsboro Circuit; 1899, Millbrook Circuit; 1900, 1901, 1902 and 1903, Brooklyn, Raleigh; 1904 and 1905, Alamance Circuit; 1906, 1907, 1908 and 1909, Hillsboro Circuit; 1910, Alamance Circuit; 1911, North Alamance.

These figures give the bare outlines of an itinerant ministry stretching through nearly three decades. They were years of faithful and fruitful toil. Souls were born to God under his ministry, and the body of Christ was edified. He knew Jesus Christ as a personal Saviour, and walked with Him in the strength of an unwavering faith along paths that were sometimes shrouded with shadows and thick with thorns. His ministry was built upon the great facts of a profound experience. Such a ministry always has in it elements of measureless power. He knew the way to the throne, and sometimes he came from the trysting place with shining face as a prophet who had seen a vision of his Lord high and lifted up, and His glory filling all the temple, and then the live coal was upon his lips, and his tongue burned with heavenly flame. In mental grasp, power of analysis, and spiritual unction, Brother McFarland was a preacher far above the average, and there were times when his praying lifted you into the very audience chamber of the King. Wherever he served, he left the impress of a man of God, and where he served the longest he was most beloved. A quiet, reserved, retiring nature, he disclosed his innermost heart to but few; but to those who really knew him, who had his unreserved confidence, he disclosed a white soul as unselfish as a little child's, and as gentle as a delicate woman's.

March 3, 1886, Brother McFarland was happily married to Miss Mary J. White, of Burlington, N. C., who, with two children, survives him. He found in his devoted wife a woman worthy to be the companion of an itinerant Methodist preacher, sharing with him the triumphs of the field, and the privations of the camp, and into the home, of which she became the gracious center, he poured the rich treasures of his love. His home life was beautiful. Who among us does not recall a tall, stalwart form, towering like a son of Anak in the midst of the Lord's host, and by his side a frail, pale-faced boy—his boy—from whom he was never separated in thought, and never for long in person. They were chums, and their comradeship converted life into a daily sacrament, making a living picture worthy of the brush of an artist. And this was but a side light stealing out from the home where the heart of God's prophet found peace and satisfaction; the peace of perfect love, the satisfaction of joyous fellowship.

For a long time, longer, perhaps, than most of us suspected, Brother McFarland was a man of broken health; but in pain and weakness he toiled on, unwilling to quit his "loved employ," falling at last in full armor on that "far-flung battle line," dropping his battered sword with his dying breath at the feet of his great Captain, and was hailed as conqueror on that field where only heroes die. A grave on the hillside, the grave of a nameless prophet so far as the great world is concerned, a vacant chair in the little parsonage home, and children sobbing in the night, and the faithful wife who has kept unwearied watch by the fireside through all the years, wondering amid the deepening shadows why her prophet-soldier comes not to his own, and the last chapter in the life of an humble Methodist preacher is written, and of him it shall be said: "Faithful unto death, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

MEMOIR OF WILLIAM LORENZO CUNINGGIM.

William Lorenzo Cuninggim was born in Lenoir County, North Carolina, January 29, 1855. He was the son of the Rev. W. H. Cuninggim and Louise Hardy, his wife.

God drew a great plan when He made W. L. Cuninggim—He designed an instrument of noble service. The divine process began several generations ahead when He made the great and saintly, the Rev. William Cuninggim of Greene County. He was the grandfather of W. L. Cuninggim. Those who have been to old Rainbow Church and have met the good people of that community have heard the traditions of that splendid man and have felt his influence upon the present time. He was one of the illustrious patriarchs of his time, from whom are descended many of the most devoted servants of the Church and many of the chief citizens of the State in this generation. His wife was Edith Gibbons, one of the holy women of her day.

W. L. Cuninggim was a true scion of this noble stock. In his boyhood life he showed the strength and quality of a pure heredity. In Raleigh, where much of his youth was spent, he had friends that loved him and trusted him through all the years because of the pureness of his young life in their midst. It was here that he received his academic training for college. Later, he entered Trinity College; and later still, Vanderbilt University. In these institutions he showed the passion for learning. He was the patient and untiring student—the young man of well-ordered life—the systematic worker—the college youth of the best type. His religious life began early in childhood. I have heard him say that he knew not the time of his conversion—but that he knew that he was converted and that he loved God and loved his fellow man.

On September 1, 1877, he was licensed to preach by the Rev. Dr. E. A. Yates at a quarterly conference of the Neuse Circuit. He brought to the ministry a strong body that had been kept for Christ—a spirit of deep earnestness—an intellect balanced and richly furnished for the work—a lofty ideal of manhood—and a heart of love and of broad human sympathies that was kept throughout his career under the constraint of the love of Christ. And this offering once laid upon the altar he kept there.

At the session of our Conference in Wilson in 1879, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection of the M. E. Church, South. In 1880-81 he served the Wilson Circuit. In 1882, 1883, 1884 he was pastor of the Weldon and Halifax charge.

On July 18, 1883, he was happily married to Miss Maggie Pendergast, of Nashville, Tenn.

His other appointments were as follows: Person Street Station, Raleigh, 1885, 1886; Oxford Station, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890; Henderson Station, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894; Fifth Street Station, Wilmington, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898; Hay Street, Fayetteville, 1899, 1900; Main Street, Durham, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904; St. Paul, Goldsboro, 1905, 1906; Wilmington District, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910; Raleigh District, 1911.

He died January 18, 1911, at Raleigh.

In 1892 he was elected Secretary of the North Carolina Conference, which office he filled efficiently and faithfully until his removal from us. In 1910 he was a delegate to the General Conference of the M. E. Church, South, at its session in Asheville, N. C. In 1904 he was elected a trustee of Trinity College—and he gave to the institution the service of a devoted son.

In the very beginning of his work he commanded the confidence and love of the people. His consecration to duty, his earnestness, his warm human sympathies, and the hunger of his soul after the best gifts and to do the best work gave him the place of power among the people wherever the Church sent him. He was well nigh an ideal pastor. He had but one work—his soul knew but one passion, and that was that he might win Christ and fill to the full the mission of the true minister of Christ. This was his one care—his one employ. In the various charges where he has labored the Church knows how tenaciously he held to his ideal and how full was the service that he gave. He has made a record of pastoral service and of faithfulness to duty that has been rarely equaled.

He got under every burden that his people bore—he entered into every sorrow that they had—he wrestled with every problem that came to their homes; and out of his full knowledge of their states and conditions and out of the deep sympathies of his warm heart he always brought to the pulpit the nourishing and strengthening message that was needed. He was by way of eminence the pastor to children and to the poor. Here was probably the place of his greatest power—the place where he got his best grip upon the people at large. The grown folks loved him because of what he was to children—and the rich folks loved him because of what he was to the poor. It is easy for us to imagine that these two things, children and poor, were the distinctive things in the ministry of the Christ; and it is easy for us to imagine how naturally Will Cuninggim took them into the plan of his own work. There is many a poor boy in North Carolina that has felt the touch of his hand and has been inspired to some noble aim by his counsel—there is many a burdened widow in the land that has been strengthened by his faith and his prayers—there is many a working man's home that has been made brighter and sweeter by his visits—and there is many a rich man's home that has been held steady to Christ by the faithfulness of this man.

During his entire ministry he was a hard student—a student of the Word—a student of men and a student of books. In the pulpit he was not an orator in the popular sense, but he was always entertaining and instructive, and he always got a large hearing. He spoke generally in the conversational voice, and he used words and illustrations such as the common people understood.

He brought to the pulpit a mind enriched with association with the best writers, while his message always bore the marks of acquaintance with God and of being often in the secret place.

But while he made among us so notable a record as pastor, he seemed not to have come to his true place until he was advanced to the presiding eldership. Here it was that he probably did his greatest work. Here it was that he showed the qualities of leadership in an eminent degree. He impressed upon the pastors and the laymen of his district his own thoughts of the sacredness of the work of the Church and that no offering is too costly to be laid upon her altars. He withheld no service that was needed at his hands. By vigilance—by prayerfulness—by steady going—by labors abundant—by letters—by close fellowship with the workers, he kept his eye upon every part of the field—and he answered every call that was made upon him to serve at any post of the work, however remote or however inaccessible. And his example became an inspiration—it deepened the consecration of the pastors—it quickened the life of many others—and the whole district moved forward.

In his sickness the end came rapidly. The doctors said that the disease needed not to be fatal, but that he had used up too much of his strength and that he had nothing to fight with. His death was really the sacrifice of his own body that had been going on for months.

A sense of shock has come to us—the unexpected, the mysterious has taken place. In a great battle where vast issues are at stake a gallant leader has been stricken and borne from the field;—and at a time when such leaders are few, and when the ranks of the enemy are full. The Church probably never needed men more than she needs them today. Wide opportunities of conquest seem open to her—such as our fathers hardly dreamed of. We are at a time when the Church seems to be girding herself for vast world movements. The far-extended battle line along which the dynasties of the earth have marshaled their legions against our Christ seem to be weakening at many points. It is the time for aggressive action and for skilled leadership. In the midst of such conditions it is a strange dispensation that removes one of our leaders from the field.

And such a leader! Wise and trained in the art of war—adroit and daring upon the field—unafraid and steady in the presence of the enemy—having the strategic eye and the nerve and swiftness of action to storm the strategic point—never sparing himself nor counting his own life dear save as he might use it for the King! To see such a man in the full glory of his manhood leading his brave columns and making destructive assault upon the enemy—to see him removed from his command seems strange.

And it is strange when we look only upon the things which are seen—but when we consider the things which are not seen, then it is not strange—it is seemly and it is fit.

For there is another world outlying—a world of infinite proportions—a vast universe where God has His seat and where there are hosts of His that do His pleasure and where His eternal purposes are unfolding. When we consider that outlying world—that splendid empire—those dominions and principalities and powers, then it is not strange that God should remove a leader from the field here and appoint him to large rulership there. For the field here is the training ground for those who are to be kings and priests unto our God and are to come to seats and thrones and dominions in that wider realm. Such, we believe, is the thing that has been done here almost in the seeing of our eyes and in the hearing of our ears in the removal of dear Will Cuninggim from our ranks. We believe he has been advanced to a higher station and to a wider sphere.

In the ancient Roman world when a conqueror returned from distant wars all Rome accorded him a triumphal entry into the seven-hilled city. What must it be in heaven when a hero comes fresh from the field with his sword warm with recent fight and from a war where eternal issues are involved? What a welcome it must have been that heaven gave the brave Cuninggim as he bore tidings to those shining hosts!

“Very pleasant hast thou been unto us, our brother.”

MEMOIR OF JAMES CHANDLER REYNOLDS.

On July 12, 1911, while gray clouds were dropping down copious showers, as if weeping for the dying day, loved ones stood weeping around the couch where Rev. James Chandler Reynolds was answering the last call.

Brother Reynolds was a native of Richmond County, born December 19, 1885. He was, therefore, twenty-six years, six months and twenty-three days old. He died of typhoid fever, following both parents and three brothers, who were taken away with the same disease.

Seven years ago he was married to Miss Ada Bennett, of Richmond. To them were born four children, all of whom survive. He was converted in early childhood, uniting with the Methodist Church. At the age of seventeen years he went about the community holding prayer meetings. While his early education was somewhat neglected, he surrounded himself with good books, and began preparing himself for a useful ministry, for his heart was so signally stirred by the power of grace that he found no joy until he entered this holy office. Accordingly, he took work as a supply and served as follows: Robersonville, 1909; Vanceboro, 1910, and McKendree, 1911. He was serving the latter charge with great acceptability when death released him in the mid-year, just as his people were learning to trust his leadership. At the last district conference he passed his examination and was recommended to the Annual Conference for admission on trial.

It looks a pity from the earth side that he should have been called so early, just when his life seemed most replete with service. But God's ways and thoughts are infinitely above our ways and thoughts; and it is not how long we live, but how well we live that makes life a blessing. Longevity does not count with us any more than it did with our Master. If we may measure life by heart throbs, it is not the number of times the heart palpitates, but rather the sympathy, the love, the service given off to men. Measured thus, his life was a success. Who would say the violet has not done its work as well and as effectually as the century plant, though its bright petals fade in a day? It has lifted its face to the light, and caught the hue and glory of the far-off sky, and translated new beauty and fragrance to earth. Likewise, he who has brought joy and gladness to men, and added a service of love to human necessities has not lived in vain nor labored for naught, though the days of his life were short.

REPORT OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

We, your committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

We rejoice to note the increased prosperity of the American Bible Society. During the past year the demand for the Bible has been greater than in any previous year of the Society's history. We have been informed by the representative of the American Bible Society, Rev. W. G. Bates, that the demands upon the Society have so largely increased that the present presses of the New York house can not turn off enough Bibles to meet it, and that new facilities are needed, and that money for these must come before they can be installed.

The new missionary interest in the church has had much to do in increasing this demand for the Holy Scriptures.

At the beginning of the year the endowment of the Society amounted to $1,018,245.96, as shown by their annual report. During the present year to this has been added Mrs. Russell Sage's gift of $500,000, and to this has been added $94,541.15 to secure Mrs. Sage's gift. And to these have been added other gifts. So that the present endowment amounts to $2,118,538.21, of which only the income can be used for general purposes by the Society.

The income from all sources will probably amount to $350,000 this year—the balance of the budget of expenditures, that is to say, $240,000, must be provided by the contributions of churches, individuals, or by unrestricted legacies. In view of the great need of the American Bible Society, we suggest that the presiding elders give special prominence to the Bible Society work at the district conferences, placing this subject on the missionary program. Second, that every pastor present the needs of the Society to his people. Third, that a collection be taken in all our congregations for the benefit of the American Bible Society.

C. W. ROBINSON, Secretary.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Your Sunday School Board respectfully submits the following report:

The importance of Sunday School work in our Conference is being stressed more every day, and that we are a part of a great work is being freshly realized now as never before.

Progress in our work during 1911 has been very satisfactory. The Sunday School Institute held at Trinity College in July proved entirely successful and the results of it are being widely felt. The observance of Children's Day in every charge during this past year is a very gratifying circumstance. Your chairman attended the conference of chairmen of the Sunday School boards during April, and found the general spirit exhibited there to be one of decided optimism.

We have received a copy of the report of the General Sunday School Board, and note with much pleasure the progress our great Church is making in Sunday School work, their report showing an increase in the Sunday School enrollment of 66,113 pupils and 4,853 officers and teachers, making a grand total of 70,964. While our own statistics for 1911 are not yet available, we are confident that our Conference has had an important part in this increase.

W-O-R-K is the easiest and only way to spell efficiency, and that is what we are aiming for in 1912. Looking toward attaining and maintaining efficiency, your Board is aiming for a more thorough organization of all our forces, and believing that this can best be brought about by a man giving his entire time and thought to the work, we have acted on the recommendation of the General Sunday School Board that we employ a Field Secretary, and have employed Mr. M. W. Brabham, a consecrated layman, to carry on the work. We urge the hearty co-operation of every minister in making this work effectual.

We are anxious to aid the presiding elders in making the Sunday School work what they would have it, and with this in view, we are planning to hold a Sunday School conference in every district. The institute to be held at Trinity College next year will be better and larger than the one held so successfully this year. We are glad to report that the Western North Carolina Conference has appointed a committee to join with us in making the gathering one for both conferences. In addition to these gatherings for larger numbers, we purpose to hold local institutes for small territories, thereby reaching the rural schools as well as the village and city schools.

In carrying on this institute work, the Sunday School and Epworth League boards are co-operating, and we are expecting much good to result from the joint undertaking.

During 1912 we are bending every effort toward improving our work. We recommend the adoption of the Standard of Excellence as adopted by our General Sunday School Board, which embraces the departments to which we hope our workers will all lend their aid and encouragement. Especially would we urge the formation of Teacher Training Classes in our schools.

We are very glad to have Dr. Chas. D. Bulla, Superintendent of the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, with us. The department which he represents is recognized by your Board as a very important phase of our Sunday School work, and we learn from him of the marvelous success of this providential agency. The status of Baraca and Philathea classes is not disturbed, neither is it necessary to make any change in class names in affiliating with their own church, and our preachers, Sunday School superintendents and teachers of Bible classes are urged to organize and enroll their classes in the Wesley Adult Bible Class Department, and enter into a comradeship, the outcome of which will be the instruction of scores of thousands of men and women in the Scriptures and their going forth to accomplish tasks commensurate with their capabilities.

We gratefully acknowledge the great service to the Church of Brother John R. Pepper in the preparation of the Working Manual for the use of Annual Conference Sunday School Boards, field secretaries and Sunday School workers in general.

The General Sunday School Board has undertaken to erect at Southern Assembly, Waynesville, N. C., a model Sunday School building, in which to hold institutes, conferences and other Sunday School meetings, and which at the same time will serve as a model for the entire Church. This worthy enterprise is heartily endorsed.

We gladly endorse the work of the International Sunday School Association, and we believe it to be doing a work which will aid in the general betterment of Sunday School conditions.

We recommend that our Church colleges adopt the Teachers Training Course, and when this can not be done as a part of their curriculum, that they suggest to their students that they take such a course individually.

In order to economize in every possible manner, the Sunday School Board has decided to eliminate the printing of our annual handbook, thereby helping us to carry out the projects which we have before us. We therefore request the Conference to authorize the printing of the names and addresses of our Sunday School superintendents by districts and charges, in the minutes of the Conference. This will popularize the minutes and be of real value to the pastors as well as the laity of the Church. The expense of such printing will be more than taken care of by the contribution which the Sunday School Board gives for the printing of the minutes.

Your Board, seeing and realizing the great need of Sunday School efforts, has undertaken projects this year which will bring results if the proper co-operation is given, and to carry out such projects it will be necessary for the Children's Day Fund to be doubled from what it was this year, and we feel that the same can be easily done with the assistance which the Board proposes to give. Every charge in the Conference did something this year, but nothing to compare with what we should do. We have in our Conference something like 65,000 enrollment, and an average of five cents per capita would practically bring these results, and thus we see what an easy matter this would be if we all would do our duty.

We earnestly trust that we will have the co-operation of every member of this Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

W. B. COOPER, Chairman.

C. F. BLAND, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Temperance Committee has carefully considered the report of the Superintendent of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League, which has been referred to us, and has studied the situation in our State and nation from the viewpoint of the North Carolina Conference. We believe that advancement has been made in the past twelve months along temperance lines. Enforcement has made splendid headway in Asheville, Greensboro, Durham and many other smaller points. We note with pleasure that the courts throughout the State are more severe in their judgments and that the citizens are waking up to the fact that the law will not execute itself.

We rejoice also at the pronounced sentiment throughout our State demanding some national legislation to break up the interstate liquor trade, and that a conference "to consider the evils of the interstate liquor traffic" is called by prominent citizens of the United States to meet at Washington on December 14th and 15th.

We call your attention to the total abstinence department of the Anti-Saloon League, the Lincoln Legion. This organization, through Sunday Schools and young people's societies, is stressing the necessity of pledge signing, and to date has enrolled something like one million pledges. A few Sunday Schools in North Carolina observed World's Temperance Sunday, November 12th, by giving a temperance program and presenting the opportunity to all present to sign the pledge. We hope that other Sunday Schools from year unto year will do likewise.

In view of these findings your committee recommends:

1st. That this Conference emphasize the necessity of the enforcement of our prohibition law, and urge our people everywhere to elect such officers as can be depended on to be true to their official trust.

2d. That we protest against the injustice of the present interstate liquor traffic, and endorse the movement now on foot for a conference at Washington seeking relief through Congress, and urge our people to attend. That we request our representatives, both in the Senate and House, to work and vote for such legislation as is contemplated in the Sheppard-Curtis Bill, now pending in Congress.

3d. We are glad to state that ninety per cent of the newspapers in our State do not advertise liquor, and we earnestly request those that do to quit it as soon as their present contracts terminate.

4th. That our people be advised not to patronize doctors and drug stores that violate our prohibition laws.

5th. That Dr. D. B. Zollicoffer, G. S. Bearden, J. C. Wooten, J. H. Shore and D. H. Tuttle be appointed delegates to the National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and that G. T. Adams and L. P. Howard be appointed alternates.

6th. That we request the Bishop to appoint R. L. Davis, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina.

7th. That we endorse the work and literature of the Anti-Saloon League, and commend it to our people for service and support.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. S. BEARDEN, Chairman.

R. L. DAVIS, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We, your Epworth League Board, beg leave to submit the following report:

We note with pleasure that the League is making steady progress in our Conference. While some leagues have been discontinued, others have been organized, and they are doing excellent work. Also that the League Conference, held at Dunn last June, was a success in many respects. We heartily commend the policy of the Annual Conference League Cabinet and the work of the Conference Editor.

We rejoice to see that our League Conference has taken part in the Cuba Special to the amount of $500.00, and that it is supporting Mrs. Hinohara at a cost of $180.00, and that it is raising $320.00 to be expended for the development of the League in our Conference.

Our League Conference for 1912 is to be held in June in the town of Kinston. We hope that the stay of the preachers in Kinston this week will cause many of them to return to our League Conference.

We desire to express our approval of the conduct of the Epworth Era by the editors, and of their administration of the central office, and we wish to record our appreciation of Dr. F. S. Parker's presence and helpful service at our last annual League Conference. We also desire to call special attention to the work being done by the Epworth League in behalf of the boys of our Church, and urge our pastors to avail themselves of the free literature procurable at the central office.

In consideration of the sacredness and importance of the trust committed to our great Church in the large body of young and untrained people committed to us, and earnestly desiring to prove faithful to Him who has imposed on us this trust, therefore, we, your Epworth League Board, ask:

1st. That there be held in each presiding elder's district an Epworth League institute, at such time and place as shall be agreed upon by the presiding elder and the district League secretary.

2d. That both senior and junior Leagues be entitled to one representative for every fifteen members of the local chapters, the junior superintendent and the presidents of Senior Leagues being members by virtue of their office.

3d. That in those charges where no League now exists, the presiding elder, on nomination of the pastor in charge, have three young people elected by the quarterly conference to represent that charge at the institute.

4th. That the presiding elder co-operate with the League Secretary in arranging programs and securing suitable speakers for these institutes.

We would ask, further, that the pastors see to it that their Leagues pay the ten-cent assessment to the central office. That the pastors who have churches in which there are no Leagues co-operate with the League district secretary and the lay member of the Board in the district in an effort or efforts to organize Leagues in such churches.

We rejoice to note that a committee has been appointed by our Board to confer with a committee from the Sunday School Board and with the Conference League Cabinet in regard to carrying on a joint campaign throughout the Conference in the interest of the League and the Sunday School.

A. J. PARKER, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE ORPHANAGE COMMITTEE.

We are glad to report that steady progress has been made in every department of the institution. The steam laundry, which was begun last year, is now completed and in use. This is a model and up-to-date plant, and includes sewing rooms for the girls.

During the year a movement for a boys' cottage with capacity for 36 boys, was started, and it has progressed far enough to assure the completion of the building in the near future. The school, under the care of four teachers, has eight grades, and is correlated with the city schools of Raleigh, grade for grade.

The health of the institution has been excellent during the year, only one death occurring among the children; and this was from inflammatory rheumatism that could not be arrested and went to the heart.

The management has shown great ability in financing the institution. One hundred and forty-two children, in charge of 11 officers and teachers, have been clothed, supported and schooled at a cost of $7.73 per child per month.

The following interesting items are taken from the Superintendent's report: Paid for sundries, including clothing, etc., $1,708.36; for provisions, $4,508.71; for building and repairing, $1,723.90; for salaries, $4,510.25; for light, $273.25; for water, $376.73; for fuel, $878.11; for insurance, $907.25; for steam laundry, $7,715.70.

Your committee recommends that the present financial plan for the support of the Orphanage be continued until changed by the Conference.

We earnestly recommend that the assessment for the Orphanage be included in the regular budget, leaving, as far as practicable, the Sunday School offerings and private donations for the growth and development of the institution.

Your committee are persuaded that the work of our Church in this Orphanage is of primary importance to the successful operation of our Sunday Schools, and to the end that our people may be fully advised and quickened in conscience and benevolence, we recommend that wherever practicable the schools appoint some member to visit the Orphanage during the Conference year and report back his findings of the progress and needs of this institution.

It is with pleasure that we comply with the request of the Board of Trustees in asking the Conference to elect Rev. L. S. Massey a trustee in the place of Rev. T. N. Ivey; also in asking the Bishop to reappoint Rev. John N. Cole as Superintendent.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your Committee on Church Property beg leave to make the following report:

This has been a year of continual success in building and repairing churches and parsonages, as shown by the following figures:

Gain in value of churches and other church property	$191,634.00
Gain in value of parsonages.....	26,555.00
	<hr/>
Total gain	$218,189.00

The valuation for this year is:

Churches and other church property.....	$2,104,903.00
Parsonages	350,767.00
Total	$2,455,670.00

We note that insurance on this amount is only $656,815.00. We recommend that all preachers look closely after the insurance on all church property, and also see that all deeds contain the trust clause given in our Discipline.

We further recommend that the preachers see that all churches are insured, and that a committee for rural churches be appointed to see after beautifying all churches and parsonages.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals notes with great pleasure the continued prosperity in our Publishing House at Nashville. It has assets of $1,187,318.37, and has been able this year to appropriate the sum of $10,000 for distribution to the claimants of the several annual conferences.

The Methodist Review has increased in circulation until it now is a source of revenue to the Publishing House. It is ably edited, and should be a source of real inspiration and uplift to all intelligent preachers and laymen.

The Christian Advocate has met the cost of publication during the year. It is a journal of high class and should be read by more of our people. We recommend that the preachers of the Conference make a special effort during the coming year to increase its circulation. Our people ought to be more in touch with the general work of the Church. We are specially gratified at the high standard of editorial work set by our brother, Dr. T. N. Ivey.

The Missionary Voice and the Epworth Era have a field of increasing influence and usefulness. They are helping to mould missionary sentiment and enlarge activity among those they serve, and we urge our preachers to help to extend their work by increasing their circulation.

The Sunday School editors have done faithful and excellent work, and our literature is now adequate for our needs. We would call attention to the new graded literature as being especially adapted to a most efficient teaching of the Word. We hope our Sunday Schools will use largely the magnificent resources at their command.

We have examined carefully the report of Rev. L. S. Massey, editor of our own Conference organ, the Raleigh Christian Advocate. Although handicapped in many respects, the paper has been able to meet its obligations and pay a six-per-cent dividend. Brother Massey is giving us his best efforts, and the result of his labor is a paper that is a credit to the Conference. The pastors have no more efficient ally in carrying on every phase of church work than that offered by the church paper. It can not reach its highest usefulness until its circulation is largely increased. If it could find its way into every home in our membership, there would be a marked advance in every department of our activity. It ought to go into every home in our Conference, and we should be satisfied with nothing less. We strongly urge that some steps be taken to bring about this result. We make this plea, not for the sake of the paper, but for the sake of the Church which it serves. We as a Church have never fully realized what a mighty power this paper could be. We particularly urge that a special effort be made this year to put the Advocate in the home of every official member of all our churches.

Respectfully submitted,

T. A. SIKES, Chairman.

J. A. LEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board submits the following report:

We find that our assessment, when raised in full, enables us to grant but little more than half the urgent and worthy applications before us, and that a great field of usefulness is closed to us for lack of funds. We therefore insist that Church Extension be given its merited place among the other collections, and that no deficits be lightly placed here.

And, further, we most earnestly beg that our presiding elders give this cause a chance to be heard at all the district conferences of 1912.

And your Board is unanimously of the belief that the time is ripe, and the need most urgent, for the establishing of a Conference Loan Fund from voluntary subscriptions, bequests and otherwise, as set forth by the Discipline. And we ask all our preachers to speak of this cause and furnish our people literature. And we respectfully ask the Conference to grant us the privilege of raising this fund. And chairman of our Board will arrange to have the cause represented at the district conferences.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Each communication referred by the Conference to the Board of Missions has received our careful consideration. The letter from General Secretary W. W. Pinson informs us of an accumulated indebtedness of the General Board, made necessary by the growing demands upon it. This indebtedness is increasing each year. The General Secretary suggests that each pastor be urged to solicit voluntary offerings above the assessments, to create a surplus to cancel this indebtedness. As a means to this end, the adoption of the every-member canvass and envelope system at once is urged, and your Board recommends this course. In line with this policy, we recommend the strengthening of enterprises already established, rather than the institution of new ones.

We are glad to note the progress of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, indicated in a letter from General Secretary Reid of this movement, and hail with gladness the dawning of the day of thorough co-operation of the laymen with the ministry in raising the greatest amount of funds to push the Kingdom of Christ in the earth.

We especially endorse the Missionary Voice as a periodical full of inspiring and stimulating food for the missionary spirit. Each pastor is urged to extend its circulation among his people as a means of creating a missionary conscience and swelling the tide of contributions to the cause of missions.

Your Board also notes with pleasure the great progress, as seen by their reports to our Conference, of our consecrated co-laborers, the Woman's Foreign Missionary and Woman's Home Mission Societies, and especially urge it upon our pastors that they encourage by their sympathies and public commendation every effort these good women make.

We are glad to have had Dr. J. M. Moore, General Secretary of Home Missions, with us, and believe his visit will prove a blessing to our Conference.

The report of the Treasurer shows a surplus over the assessment, $36,170.00, of $9,403.00, raised this Conference year. This can be seen from the minutes of last year to be a decided increase.

To be in harmony with the general spirit and movement of the Church, your Board recommends the appointment of D. H. Tuttle, J. A. Dailey, H. M. North, E. H. Davis and J. D. Bundy, a Committee on Evangelism, to co-operate with the general committee of the Church.

For the ensuing year the assessment for Conference Missions remains $14,500.00, the same as for the past year. However, added to this is an assessment of $5,200.00 for Home Missions made by the General Board, making the assessment for Conference and Home Missions $19,700.00. The assessment for Foreign Missions is $16,-

500.00. You notice that the totals of these assessments are reversed in their order respectively from the past year, due to a transfer by the General Board of a part of the hitherto assessment for Foreign Missions to the Home department of our Church. Though this change has been made, the total assessment for Foreign and Home Missions on our Conference remains the same as the past year. The apportionment to districts is as follows:

ASSESSMENTS 1911-12.

Districts.	Foreign Missions.	Conference and Home Missions.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your Committee on Sabbath Observance, beg leave to submit the following report:

Believing that God in great wisdom instituted the Sabbath and hallowed it, do deplore the widespread and increasing disposition, as we see it, of the people, and even of large numbers of the church membership, to disregard and desecrate the Sabbath day. We feel that the church ought to speak in no uncertain sound in regard to this matter. We regard it as a day to be given not to social enjoyment and selfish indulgence, but to service, the worship of God and holy meditation. We deplore all work carried on by corporations, such as the running of trains of all sorts on that day, that bar their employees from the rest and worship of God; automobiling, sporting on water or land, and all worldly amusements.

We recommend that the first Sunday in February, 1912, be fixed as Sunday League Day, and request that all our pastors preach a sermon on the importance of observance of this day.

H. M. JACKSON, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

THE GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The total income of the Board for the year was $46,944.50. While the income from the assessments ordered by the General Conference for education was larger by $1,050.79 than the preceding year, the total income of the Board was less by $2,749.40. This decrease is accounted for by the fact that $3,169.99 less was received from the Correspondence School last year than the year preceding. The Superintendent, Professor Cunninggim, explains that this falling off in income on the part of the Correspondence School was caused by a change in the method of requiring the payment of fees, and that perhaps it will not occur again. The work of the colored Methodist Episcopal Church aided by the Board is moving forward with commendable progress.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

The report of the Secretary shows remarkable progress and clearly indicates that this school is doing a great work. The enrollment during the year has been from seven hundred to one thousand students, including practically every English speaking conference in the connection.

During the past nine years, which mark the limit of its existence, the school has enrolled one-third of the entire number of active pastors, including supplies, in the church.

We would call attention to the fact that every pastor is required by the new Discipline to furnish the names and addresses of all candidates for the ministry (that is, those who feel called to preach but who have not been licensed) to the Annual Conference Board of Education, in order that we may forward the same to the General Board. We urge the pastors to bear this in mind and give in their lists by the next session of our Conference.

We heartily endorse the work of the Correspondence School, and would urge all of our undergraduates to take their course of study under its direction.

We approve the suggestion of holding an Educational Conference during the year for the entire connection, and have elected Rev. J. C. Wooten as our representative.

TRINITY COLLEGE

The report of Trinity College exhibits progress in every respect. The student body is growing in numbers and efficiency. There have been enrolled in all departments six hundred and forty-one students. Of these, four hundred and twenty-four are in college, sixty-seven are taking extension courses in secondary education, and one hundred and fifty are in Trinity Park School. There is a prospect of considerable increase by February.

There have been important additions, too, to the teaching force. First, Dr. Franklin N. Parker, Professor of Biblical Literature. No man who ever came to the college has made a better beginning than Dr. Parker is making, and his presence here makes certain that Biblical and religious education will receive in the future, as it has had in the past, due prominence. The Law School faculty has been strengthened by the coming of Judge J. Crawford Biggs, a man who has behind him a brilliant record as a student, teacher, lawyer, and judge. Rev. W. W. Peele, of the class of 1903, was in June made Headmaster of the Trinity Park School. He has brought to the school the sort of moral and intellectual leadership which it needed, and under his direction the school is already making marked progress. These three additions make up the most important contribution to the teaching force of the college ever made in a single year.

The growth of the plant has kept pace with the internal development. On January 3d the old Washington Duke Building was totally destroyed by fire. The west wing of the new Washington Duke Building has been completed, and fully occupied. This building, containing class rooms and for the present all the offices, is well furnished throughout, and in every way fitted for its uses. The East Dormitory has been completed and occupied since September 13th. The east wing of the Washington Duke Building will be completed early in the new year. A new bell, three times as large as the old one, and made by the same firm, has been installed in a temporary tower, and dedicated in honor of Bishop John C. Kilgo. Extensive improvements have been and are being made on the roads and grounds of the college. The new athletic field, which was begun in 1910, has been put in condition. For all of these additions and improvements the college is indebted to its long-time friend and benefactor, Mr. Benj. N. Duke. Mr. Duke and his brother, Mr. James B. Duke, have given this year a tract of land adjoining the original campus and valued at one hundred and thirty-six thousand and eight hundred dollars, and Mr. Jas. B. Duke has authorized the building of the West Dormitory, to cost not more than fifty thousand dollars, and to be begun in the spring.

The faculty has under consideration this year some changes in the courses of study. Looking to securing more concentration of effort and still higher and intellectual moral efficiency.

All these improvements are greatly appreciated by the students, who are responding to every effort in their behalf. The conditions of student life here seem to be thoroughly wholesome and uplifting.

Trinity College will be able to add at once one million dollars to its endowment on condition that one hundred thousand dollars shall be raised by the Board of the North Carolina Conference, and one hundred thousand dollars by the Board of the Western North Carolina Conference. We recommend that the North Carolina Conference itself assume forty thousand dollars of this amount, to be paid in the following way: The assessment for Trinity College is now five thousand dollars, two thousand going to the chair of Biblical Literature, which chair was established by this Conference, and the remainder of it going to a sinking fund for the retirement of the bonded indebtedness of the college, which becomes due in 1913 (seven thousand five hundred still being unpaid). We recommend that two thousand dollars continue to go to the chair of Biblical Literature, and that the balance of our five-thousand-dollar annual assessment be applied to the sinking fund until it is paid, and then to the North Carolina Conference Endowment Fund, the amount going to the chair of Biblical Literature to be lessened by two hundred and fifty dollars whenever five thousand dollars is added to the forty-thousand-dollar fund.

We submit for confirmation the names following, who have been nominated to the Board of Trustees: J. E. Stagg, J. F. Bruton, G. W. Flowers, and J. A. Long. We recommend their confirmation.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

Your Board of Education rejoices in the steady growth of Greensboro Female College. While there has been a loss of three students from the report of last year, the number being 224 instead of 227, it is not discouraging. For all the dormitory space has been filled the last few years.

We are glad to report that the sum of $17,500.00 has been raised on the new dormitory, and it is hoped that the balance of $7,500.00 will soon be raised.

It is also gratifying to note that the General Board of Education has put this school in Class "A."

We feel that we have a splendid property in Greensboro Female College, valued at $217,000.00, with an endowment of $100,000.00.

We recommend that J. B. Blades be confirmed as a member of the Board of Trustees.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

The report that Louisburg Female College was full of students was gratifying. We have considered the request of the Board of Trustees for the permission to borrow on the property the sum of $10,000.00, the interest on the same to be paid annually by Mrs. Allen, the President, and the request for an appropriation of $2,000 annually to pay off the debt about to be incurred.

We are anxious to help this most worthy school, and have voted the right to the Board of Trustees to borrow $10,000.00, and agree to apportion the sum of $1,500.00 annually to pay off this indebtedness, provided Mrs. Allen pays the interest on the balance of the principal from year to year until the whole sum is paid.

This $10,000.00 is to be used in permanent improvements as the Board of Trustees shall direct.

We recommend that you confirm B. B. Adams, B. W. Ballard and J. H. Shore as members of the Board of Trustees.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

We desire to express our appreciation of the great amount of good this college has done. The President has succeeded in building and equipping a splendid plant and securing a faithful faculty, who year after year have enriched the lives of many of our girls.

Your Board recommends the following apportionment be made for the coming year:

Trinity College	$5,000.00
Greensboro Female College.....	2,750.00
Louisburg Female College.....	1,500.00
Carolina College	1,250.00
General Board of Education.....	3,743.00

The assessment by districts is as follows:

Raleigh District	$1,498.00
Durham District	1,738.00
Fayetteville District	1,506.00
Rockingham District	1,726.00
Wilmington District	1,384.00
New Bern District	1,652.00
Washington District	1,651.00
Warrenton District	1,645.00
Elizabeth City District.....	1,543.00

The committee appointed by the Joint Board of Education of the two North Carolina Conferences to outline an educational policy for the two conferences, together with the plan for the correlation of the educational institutions of Methodism in this State, recommends that the academies of each State be so correlated with the colleges of that State as to form a harmonious educational system, preventing friction and waste. The committee therefore recommends the following:

1st. That, whereas, the General Board of Education has classified all the institutions under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, within the bounds of the two Conferences. we adopt this classification, and in all our official reports we designate the institutions according to the report of the General Board.

2d. We recommend that all our educational institutions be correlated according to the rating given in this report.

3d. We recommend that the two conferences of North Carolina Methodism adopt this as their educational policy.

4th. We are pleased to report that commendable efforts have already been made, and results secured, in the work of promoting correlation and of conserving patronage between some of our institutions; and we recommend a cordial co-operation among all of our institutions, seeking to effect a completed correlation of curricula, and to promote liberal attendance from our other institutions to our colleges.

5th. We recommend emphasis on the importance of our schools doing thorough work; recognizing the fact that the mission of a high school is as honorable and important as is that of the college.

6th. In order to continue a bond of co-operative effort to further promote the above named desired results, we recommend that our two conferences again appoint a Joint Committee on Correlation.

Your Board endorses this report, and asks that Rev. A. P. Tyre and Prof. R. L. Flowers be continued on this committee.

We recommend the appointment of W. V. McRae, student at Vanderbilt University; the pastor of Louisburg charge, agent of Louisburg Female College; H. E. Spence, professor at Trinity College; W. W. Peele, Headmaster of Trinity Park School; J. M. Rhodes, President of Littleton Female College; J. L. Cunniggim, Director of the Correspondence School, and S. E. Mercer, President of Carolina College; G. M. Daniel, student Vanderbilt University.

ANDREW P. TYER, Chairman.

JNO. C. WOOTEN, Secretary.

Sessions of the North Carolina Conference

The North Carolina Conference was set off from the Virginia Conference in February, 1837, and in 1850 and again in 1870, North Carolina territory in the South Carolina Conference was transferred to this Conference. In 1890 North Carolina territory in the Holston Conference and in the Virginia Conference, fexcept that beyond the Chowan River, was transferred to the North Carolina Conference, and the Conference was divided into the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences. In 1894 the remaining North Carolina territory in the Virginia Conference was transferred to the North Carolina Conference. So now the two Conferences embrace the whole of North Carolina.
